

A BIG FIELD.

The Examiner has undertaken the task of exposing some of the glaring abuses of Comstock mine management. It has a large field to labor in, and it is working hard in this question. Its success will justify rank as its greatest journalistic triumph.

The APPEAL from time to time has pointed out these same abuses, but the APPEAL is too small a paper to work a revolution in such old established abuses. All that is needed is enterprise, courage and discrimination in the matter, and if the Examiner sticks to its text the waste Coast will be benefited. It must be able to separate the wheat from the chaff, or perhaps more properly speaking, the pay rock from the porphyry. Not all of the Comstock mines are mismanaged, nor do all the mills mix worthless rock with good ore and swell the mining receipts. The fact that some mines are run by thoroughbred capitalists casts distrust on all Comstock mining, and the old ledger suffers for the sins of a few. The Examiner will work a great public good if it shows exactly where the evil lies and makes the exposure so complete that the misdeeds who have fattened off public credulity so long will be driven from the nefarious business. The expose must cut deep and spare no one who is involved. After these bad influences are weeded out of the ledge, public confidence will be restored, and the stock buyers will again feel like investing in the Comstock.

Any assistance which the APPEAL can render the Examiner will be gladly tendered, and we hope every paper in the State will lend a hand to clear the main industry of Nevada from the reproach that now rests upon its record. The business of mining must be honestly conducted, or Nevada cannot prosper with it.

An Energetic Worker.

The Echo Independent in mentioning the prompt reply of Senator Stewart to a letter asking him to make an effort for better mail facilities, says:

With all that has been said of Senator William M. Stewart, Nevada never had a more energetic worker in the halls of Congress, nor one more indefatigable in pushing the interests of the State which he has the honor to represent in the United States Senate. That he is ever ready to heed the demands of his constituents is again demonstrated in the case of complaints as to the mail service in White Pine county.

There is much consolation to be derived from a knowledge of the fact that a petition, sent to Senator Stewart praying for a redress of grievances, or for any Legislative action in the interest of the people of Nevada, will receive due consideration, and that we can count on his hearty co-operation in any measure which will redound to the welfare of the people of Nevada. Senator Stewart is faithful to the interests of the citizens of the sage brush State.

He Wanted a Receipt.

In this city of Halifax there dwell a lawyer, crafty, subtle and cute as a fox. An Indian of the Miami tribe named Simon, owed him some money. The poor red man brought the money to his creditor and waited, expecting the lawyer to write a receipt.

"What are you waiting for?" said the lawyer.

"Receipt," said the Indian.

"A receipt," said the lawyer, "receipt. What do you know about a receipt? Can you understand the nature of a receipt? Tell me the use of one and I will give it to you."

The Indian looked at him a moment and then said:

"Suppose maybe me die, me go to heben me find gates locked, me see 'postal Peter, he say: 'Simon, what you want?' 'Me want to get in.' He say: 'You pay Mr. J. dat money?' What me do? I hab no receipt; hab to hunt all ober hell to find you."

He got a receipt.
